REQUIRED INCREASED REPORTING FOR NON-CASH CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

The rules are changing by new legislation for reporting non-cash charitable contributions.

Property contributions over $500

1. No charitable deduction is allowed unless a taxpayer provides a description of the property and other information required by the IRS. (A description of the property would include an itemized list for each contribution, i.e. 3 trousers, 2 sweaters, etc. as well as the thrift store valuation of that donation.

For your convenience we have attached a list of thrift store values for typically donated items.

Property contributions over $5000

1. No charitable deduction is allowed unless the individual, partnership or corporation obtains a qualified appraisal and attaches information about the property and information about the appraisal as required by the IRS.
